

PREVIEW . . . Going over music to be performed by the Community Choir of El Camino College in its Aug. 3 presentation of "Songs on a Summer Night" are accompanist Kay Krantham and soloists Vic Barrera and Josephine Marelli. The community is invited to attend the Campus Theater musical without charge, college officials announced.

DUTIES ENDED . . . Harold Frenz, left, former manager of the Torrance branch of Bank of America and also former Chamber of Commerce president, chats with bank president S. Clark Beise as Frenz winds up a tour of duty on the bank's select Branch Managers Advisory Council. Frenz has been transferred from Torrance to Beverly Hills.

Interest in Smoking and Cancer at Record High

Public interest in the relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer is on a sharp upswing, according to Richard J. Lescoe, M.D., district education chairman of the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Lescoe reports the society has been getting more requests for literature and program material on smoking than at anytime since the report on the subject was released in 1954.

The upswing has been attributed to the recent report of the British Royal College of Physicians.

Dr. Lescoe says the American Cancer Society stands "pretty much in accord" with the findings of the British doctors.

Copies of the British report, "Smoking and Health," are on sale at most bookstores in a paperback edition. The society also has a number of pamphlets, reprints, film strips, and other materials on the relation of cancer and smoking.

Chest Names PTA Council Delegates

Several appointments of 10th District PTA members who will represent their local PTA councils in the Harbor Area Community Chest campaign, have been announced.

Appointments of the chairmen were made this week by the presidents of the individual PTA councils.

Accepting positions were:

MRS. PAUL Lucusk, Avalon Council; Mrs. Walter Stockwell, Gateway Council; Mrs. Leonard Berger, Gardena Council; Mrs. Stanley Stratton, Lomita-San Pedro Council.

Each chairman will assist in recruitment of other chairmen in each PTA group within the council, who in turn recruit volunteer workers for the fall residential appeal.

THE 10TH DISTRICT PTA, a Chest agency, provides an extensive health and welfare program to underprivileged children through its medical, dental and child guidance clinics.

Over the past year some 2,576 children visited the San Pedro Health Center and another 1,287 visits were made to the Gardena Health Center.

In addition to this, many children throughout the Harbor area benefitted from the district's milk and lunch program.

Swim Class Sign-ups Scheduled

Enrollment for the forthcoming two week periods of swimming instruction at El Camino College will be conducted in the Camus Center of the campus Saturday.

Starting on July 30 and Aug. 13, the sessions will provide instruction for youngsters 7 and over and for adults. Registration will begin at 8 a.m.

Prospective swimmers must be at least 50 inches tall to qualify for the college instructional program, which is given for a $1 fee for the two-week period.

Schedules outlining hours of instruction and recreational swimming periods are available to residents of the college area in the administration and physical education buildings.

Carthage, Mo., Picnic Slated

Former residents of Carthage, Mo., will hold their annual picnic on Sunday at the Anaheim Park in Anaheim.
